

ARTICLE 1

Section 1. The Legislature shall have the power to pass bills and resolutions, and to originate and amend bills and resolutions, and to pass bills and resolutions which shall have the force and effect of laws.

Section 2. The Legislature shall have the power to impeach and remove from office any officer of the State, and to elect a successor to the office of any officer so removed.

Section 3. The Legislature shall have the power to create, alter, or abolish any office in the State, and to determine the duties and powers of any officer so created, altered, or abolished.

Section 4. The Legislature shall have the power to determine the mode of election of any officer in the State, and to determine the qualifications of any officer so elected.