

Handwritten text at the top of the page, possibly a title or header, written in a cursive script.

Large, ornate calligraphic flourishes and decorative elements in the upper middle section, including a large circular flourish on the right.

Vertical handwritten text or signature located in the middle right area of the page.

Small handwritten text or notes located below the vertical signature on the right side.

Large, flowing calligraphic script across the middle of the page, possibly a main body of text or a signature.

Small handwritten text or notes located below the main calligraphic script on the left side.

A small, isolated handwritten mark or character, possibly a signature or initials, located in the lower right quadrant.