

CONTENTS

	PAGE
I. Introduction.
1. Spanish Revenue Laws	106
2. Mexican Commercial Regulations and Customs Duties	107
3. The Civil Fund	109
4. The Genesis of the Constitutional Convention of 1849	116
5. Financial Clauses of the Constitution of 1849	118
II. A Decade of Experimentation.
1. Monetary Conditions	125
2. The First State Legislature	127
3. The Temporary State Loan of 1850	127
4. The General Property Tax Law of 1850	129
5. The Poll-Tax Law of 1850	134
6. The Military Commutation Tax	135
7. The Foreign Miner's License Tax	135
8. Summary	137
9. The General Property Tax, 1851-1860	137
10. The Poll Tax, 1851-1860	151
11. The Salary Act of May 5, 1850	152
12. The Funding Act of April 29, 1851	154
13. The Salary Act of May 1, 1851	155
14. The State Debt and Expenditures, 1852	155
15. License Taxes	156
16. The Funding Act of 1852	165
17. The State's Financial Condition, June 30, 1852	166
18. The Funding Act of 1855	168
19. The Funding Act of 1856	170
20. The State Debt Declared Unconstitutional	170
21. The Funding Act of April 28, 1857	174
22. Stamp Duties	176
23. Receipts and Expenditures, 1856-1860	178
III. The Financial Problems of California from 1860 to 1872.
1. Introduction	180
2. The Legislature of 1860	180
3. The General Property Tax	182
4. The Poll Tax	195
5. License Taxes	198
6. State Receipts and Expenditures, 1860-1872	205
7. Special Legislation	205
8. Railroad Aid and Subsidies	207
9. California and the Civil War	211
(a) The Soldiers' Relief Act	212
(b) The Soldiers' Bounty Act	213
(c) The Federal Direct Tax	214
(d) The Specific Contract Act	219